The AW 5112 advertising bike rack presents your company and its current offers optimally and in any weather. Between the comfortable parking space for two customer bicycles is a double-sided display stand that everyone recognises as a tried-and-tested outdoor advertising medium. The stand features two aluminium folding frames in DIN A1 portrait format and a handy Quick-Clip system, with which you can exchange your advertising posters in a jiffy. The posters themselves are protected with non-reflective, waterproof film pockets which are included in the scope of delivery. After closing time, simply roll your advertising bike rack to its storage place.

- + Sturdy tubular steel construction
- + Corrosion-resistant value-retention through galvanising
- + DIN A1-portrait advertising stand with Quick-Clip system
- + Non-reflective, waterproof foil pouches
- + Transport wheels for easy relocation
